Dear Ms. Archer,

I would like to extend my sincerest congratulations for your outstanding achievement as the American Council on Exercise 2005 Group Fitness Instructor of the Year Second Runner-Up.

It is truly wonderful to have such esteemed and eloquent leaders represent our fitness community and specifically the American Council on Exercise. Your collective education and experience in our industry has helped to provide positive change to the lives of many.

We know that your expanded association with ACE will prove to be beneficial. ACE is continuing to raise the standards of excellence in fitness education and helping to make sure that consumers have access to safe and effective exercise opportunities.

ACE upholds the highest standards in the fitness industry and we are proud to have you as a direct reflection of these standards.

Sincerely,
